

“Step Into the World of Native Prairie”

20 Ways You and Your Family Can Get Outside and Enjoy/Appreciate Native Prairie in Saskatchewan!

- 1) Learn about the history of Saskatchewan’s prairie landscape at your local museum. (i.e. Royal Saskatchewan Museum (Regina, SK); Western Development Museum (Moose Jaw, North Battleford, Saskatoon or Yorkton, SK)
- 2) Help monitor a prairie “bandit” at Grasslands National Park near Val Marie, SK.
- 3) Say “howdy” to an endangered Prairie species at the Saskatchewan Burrowing Owl Interpretive Centre in Moose Jaw, SK.
- 4) Visit the native plant garden/medicine wheel at the First Nations University of Canada in Regina, SK at University of Regina.
- 5) Go for a hike at the Old Man on His Back Prairie and Heritage Conservation Area near Eastend, SK.
- 6) Learn how to band migratory song birds at the Last Mountain Bird Observatory near Govan, SK.
- 7) Explore the Waterfowl Park Trail at Wascana Lake in Regina, SK for native plants.
- 8) Visit the Great Sandhills Museum at Sceptre, SK to learn about the history of this unique landscape.
- 9) Listen for ghost bison herds at Wanuskewin Heritage Park, north of Saskatoon, SK.
- 10) Tour the Big Muddy Badlands south of Regina, SK to see native prairie, wildlife species, outlaw caves and effigies from the past!
- 11) Create your own plant & animal field guide at the Beaver Creek Conservation Area, south of Saskatoon, SK.
- 12) Canoe alongside ducks & geese at Valeport Marsh near Craven, SK.
- 13) Look for soaring raptors from the top of the Qu'Appelle Valley near Regina, SK.
- 14) Camp underneath the stars at any of Saskatchewan’s Provincial Parks!
- 15) Support SK producers by visiting your local Farmers’ Market.
- 16) Build a butterfly, bat or bird house for your yard.
- 17) Stay at a guest ranch and go horseback riding, hiking, bird watching or all three!
- 18) Plant native grasses and flowers in your backyard.
- 19) Join a local nature society (i.e. Nature Saskatchewan).
- 20) Visit the SK PCAP website (www.pcap-sk.org) for a list of more events and workshops!

