2017 Native Prairie Restoration/Reclamation Workshop: Reclaiming Spaces, Restoring Species

Tradeshow Information

The 5th Native Prairie Restoration/Reclamation Workshop will facilitate the collaboration between native prairie users and stakeholders to focus on “Reclaiming Spaces, Restoring Species.” The two day workshop will include expert speakers, break-out sessions, case studies, a poster session and tradeshow. Applications for tradeshow booths are now being accepted!

Details:
- Date: February 8th-9th, 2017
- Location: Ramada Plaza Regina, Regina, SK
- Expected Attendance: 200 participants representing native seed companies, industry, government, environmental non-governmental organizations, consultants, research and education institutions, land owners and producers.

Tradeshow Details:
- Set up Times: February 7th: 3:00pm-5:00pm & 7:00pm-9:00pm and 7:00am-8:00am on February 8th, 2017
- Tradeshow Times: February 8th from 8:00am-9:00pm and February 9th from 8:00am-4:00pm.
- We have programmed extended coffee and networking breaks to allow for maximum tradeshow traffic.
- Take down: Booths cannot be taken down any earlier then 3:30pm on February 9th, 2017.
- Booth Size: Booths are approximately 8’x8’ and include a table and skirt.
- Booth Fee: The fee for the booth is $500.00 (corporate), or $350 (non-profit). Booth fees include one full event registration.

How to apply for a tradeshow booth:
Application Deadline: January 17th, 2017
Please Send Payment By: January 31st, 2017.

For More Information:
- Caitlin Mroz, NPRRW Tradeshow Coordinator
- Cell: 306.298.7886
- Email: caitlinmroz@hotmail.com

Host Organization:
This event is organized by the Saskatchewan Prairie Conservation Action Plan (SK PCAP), a diverse Partnership consisting of 30 organizations, all working towards a common goal of native prairie conservation in Saskatchewan (www.pcap-sk.org).